Enel Peru Took Part in the Creatividad Empresarial Awards

Enel Group is committed to rewarding and recognising innovation for human development.

Lima, 12 November 2015 – Country Manager Carlos Tembory presented the Education award to Innova School during the 20th edition of the Creatividad Empresarial Awards 2015 organised by the Peruvian University of Applied Sciences.

Innova School was awarded for its positive impact on education, being the first network of schools with innovative methodology, integrated technology and learning-encouraging infrastructure.

To Enel Group, education is the core of development and progress of society and it is therefore essential to recognise the effort and dedication of those driving human development through innovative ideas.
