

PRESS RELEASE

ENEL PERÚ APPOINTS NEW COUNTRY MANAGER

- José Manuel Revuelta Mediavilla will take the helm of the company as of July, succeeding Carlos Temboury Molina.

Lima, June 28th, 2018 – José Manuel Revuelta Mediavilla has been appointed as the new Country Manager of Enel Perú. The new executive will succeed Carlos Temboury Molina, who has successfully led Enel Perú for the last three years.

Revuelta Mediavilla will take the reins of the holding composed of Peruvian companies Enel Distribución Peru, Enel Generación Perú, Enel Generación Piura and Enel Green Power Perú.

“I accept this great responsibility with enthusiasm and optimism. We will continue to work with dedication in the pursuit of excellent results, like those obtained thus far in power grid modernisation and energy generation projects, with a renewable-focused approach. Enel Perú also ratifies its commitment to the development of the power sector in the country,” said José Manuel Revuelta Mediavilla.

The new executive has more than 20 years of experience with the Enel Group in Spain through its local subsidiary Endesa, where he held several managerial positions up to his most recent one, namely leading the O&M team at Endesa Distribución. He also served as Director of Regulation and Competition at the National Energy Commission (CNE), the Spanish energy regulator.

Revuelta Mediavilla is an industrial engineer with a degree from the University of Valladolid, and holds a PhD in Economics from Carlos III University of Madrid. He holds an Executive MBA from Instituto de Empresa of Madrid and specializations from Harvard Business School and London School of Economics.

Enel Perú would like to extend its gratitude to Carlos Temboury for his priceless contribution to company development and positioning on the Peruvian electricity market.

